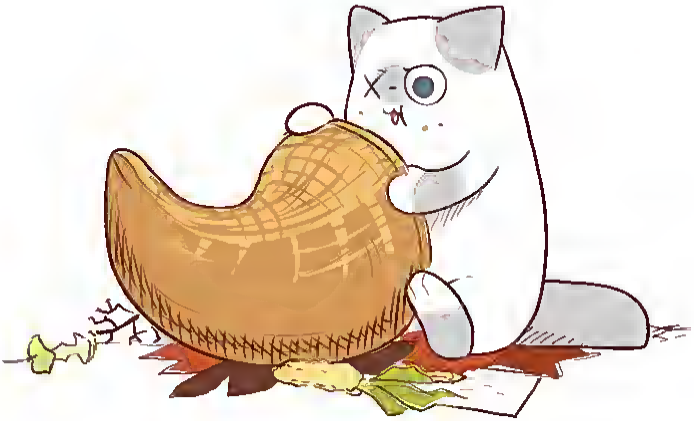
An Ode to Thanksgiving

I'm thankful For the Food I had,

I ate the food I had,

and I wish for more food that I had.



I'm thankful for them,

I'm thankful for me,

I'm thankful for everyone on the tree.

But one thing I'm thankfullest for, you see,
Is the house that is always protecting me.

I guess it's my turn.

-ahem-

I'm thankful for thoughts, that come from all sorts of lots.
From family and friends,
and from Webtoon Land.

So for that,
I give you all a tip of a hat,
for letting me draw
about these four fluffy cats.
